

Crystal Blue Persuasion Earrings

Create these pretty dangle earrings at home, and open up a whole new world of jewelry wardrobe possibilities.

Using the colors of the season and a classic and simple set of techniques you can create a pair of earrings that will look fantastic with any outfit. Whether you are wearing denim or silk, these earrings will look like you made them just for the outfit.

Made from silver and crystal these dangles sparkle and shine. They are certain to add that something special you have been looking for. If you can bear to part with them, give them as a gift and add some sparkle to someone else's day.

Technique:

- Simple Loop
- Opening & Closing jump rings

Tools:

- Round Nose Pliers
- Wire Cutters

Materials:

- 2 Plated chandelier findings
- 1 Pair earwires
- 6 22-gauge headpins
- 4 22-gauge eyepins
- 6 crystal 6mm rounds in Aquamarine
- 4 crystal 4mm bicones in Indicolite, Capri and Carribbean Blue Opal (12 bicones total)

Instructions:

To create the earrings pictured above:

- Thread one 6mm Aquamarine crystal round onto a headpin & use the simple loop technique to finish the top of the headpin.
- Thread one 4mm Indicolite bicone onto an eyepin, followed by one 4mm Carribbean Blue Opal bicone and one 4mm Capri bicone. Finish the stacked eyepin off with a simple loop.
- Using the opening and closing jump rings technique, connect the finished headpin and eyepin to one another.
- Repeat the above steps three more times to create four dangles.
- Thread one 6mm Aquamarine crystal round onto a headpin & use the simple loop technique to finish the top of the headpin. Repeat once with the remaining round.
- Using the opening and closing jump rings technique, connect each dangle to the chandelier finding, then connect the chandelier finding to the earwires.
- You now have a brand new sparkling earring set to add to your collection!